

3rd Antigua Experimental Economics Workshop and Conference

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Thursday 26 February

Venue

12:30 - 14:30	Lunch and Registration	Jardín
	Session 1: Market Experiments
14:30 - 16:00	- Douglas Montoya (University of Heidelberg): "Trust and trustworthiness: Experimental evidence from Honduras" - Diego Aycinena (Universidad Francisco Marroquín): "Informed entry in auctions" - Fernanda Leite (University of Kent): "Taking World Cup fans to the marketplace: A field-experiment on discrimination"	Sitio Escolástico
16:00 - 16:30	Coffee Break	Jardín
	Session 2: Work Groups and Teams
16:30 - 17:30	- Carles Solà Belda (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona): "Incentives and design decisions in highly interdependent work groups" - Zachary Grossman (UC Santa Barbara): "Silence is golden: communication cost and the team problem solving"	Sitio Escolástico
17:30 - 18:30	Plenary Session 1: Ernesto Reuben (Columbia University): "Fairness and Coordination: The role of fairness principles in coordination failure and success"	Sitio Escolástico
19:00	Dinner	Casa Santo Domingo

Friday 27 February

Venue

	Session 3: Health &amp; Security
9:00 - 10:30	- Lina Moros (Universidad de los Andes): "Subjective insecurity and cooperation: Evidence from field experiments in violence contexts" - Hernán Bejarano (Chapman University): "Effects of retirement and lifetime earnings profile on health investment" - María Loureiro (Universidad Santiago de Compostela): "Fast food consumption and nutritional information: results from a field experiment"	Sitio Escolástico
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break	Jardín
	Session 4: Social Preferences
11:00 - 12:30	- Luis Palacio (Universidad Industrial de Santander): "Partners Vs. Strangers: Identification of group membership in contributing to public goods" - Mongoljin Batsaikhan (Georgetown University): "Trust, trustworthiness, and success in business: Experimental and field findings from mongolian microentrepreneurs" - Pedro Romero-Alemán (Universidad San Francisco de Quito): "Bargaining and ethnic variation within a country"	Sitio Escolástico
12:30 - 13:45	Lunch	Jardín
13:45 - 14:45	Casa Popenoe Tour (optional)	Casa Popenoe
	Session 5: Common-Pool Resources
15:00 - 16:30	- José Santiago Arroyo (Universidad Libre de Colombia): "The role of Human Capital in a common pool experiment: Evidence from colombian fishermen" - Carlos Chávez (Universidad de Concepción): "Quota compliance in territorial use rights in fisheries: An experimental analysis of formal and informal enforcement with changes in abundance" - Carlos Rodríguez-Sickert (Universidad del Desarrollo): "Ecological validity, activation of social norms and external validity of social dilemma experiments: Evidence from a common pool resource experiment with artisanal fishers"	Sitio Escolástico
16:30 - 17:00	Coffee Break	Jardín
17:00 - 18:00	Plenary Session 2: Jordi Brandts (Instituto de Análisis Económico and Barcelona Graduate School of Economics) "Experiments on communication"	Sitio Escolástico
19:00	Dinner	Mesón Panza Verde

Saturday 28 February

Venue

	Session 6: Behavioral Responses to Environment
9:00 - 10:00	- Lucas Rentschler (Universidad Francisco Marroquín): "Feedback response in competitive environments" - Szabolcs Blazsek (Universidad Francisco Marroquín): "Control of household finances, risk and discounting for recipients of conditional cash transfers"	Sitio Escolástico
10:00 - 10:30	Coffee Break	Jardín
	Session 7: Learning and Information Transmission
10:30 - 11:30	- Gustavo Caballero (University of Calgary): "Imperfect and 'Incorrect' Observational Social Learning. How useful is to learn by observing others?" - Natalia Candelo (Queens College): "Transmission of information within transnational social networks: A field experiment"	Sitio Escolástico
11:30 - 12:30	Plenary Session 3: Markus Mobius (Microsoft Research) - "Social learning experiments with real-world social networks"	Sitio Escolástico
13:00	Closing Lunch	Finca Filadelfia